WM. E. PELL, | SEATON GALES, EDITORS.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1868

YESTERDAY.

The "so called" had a protracted session, on yesterday, without accomplishing much of practical consequence.

Majority and Minority Reports from the Committee on Suffrage were presented, but not read. We do not know the precise provisions of the Majority Report, and, therefore, shall omit our notice of it, until we may be able to see it in printed form.—We will take pleasure in presenting, to-morrow, the admirable Report of Messrs. Graham, of Orange, and Durham, for the Minority.

It will be observed that the Committee on Privileges and Elections (so-called) have reported adversely to the right of Mr. Williams, of Sampson, to the seat to which the people elected him, and which was awarded him by Gen. Canby, and in favor of one Hall, who contests it. We know nothing of the grounds of contest. However feeble and untenable, perhaps makes no difference. The "truly loil" are entitled to the per diem and mileage.

Resolved, That the Saints deserves the dimes.
Resolved, That we are the Saints.

A resolution was passed, directing the formation of a Committee to enquire who ought to be relieved of their disabilities.—This is preparatory to shriving a few sinners and making them clean enough to enjoy some of the numerous offices to be filled.—We refer the public to the report of proceedings, in order that they may see how the gag was applied to all opposition to this party scheme, at the primary instigation of Hood, the negro delegate from Cumberland. Liberty of speech with these men is altogether a one-sided matter. The little despotism in the Convention is on a par with the big despotism in Congress.

The Article of the Constitution, entitled "Governor and other Executive officers," was perfected and adopted,—remaining, however, substantially in the same shape as when it came from the Committee, and as it was commented on by us, a few days since. We shall publish it entire in good time.

Two sections of the Article on Militia were adopted—to be noticed hereafter.

We have before us an Ordinance, introduced by Mr. Rodman, intended to be the Judiciary Article of the Constitution, of which we may only say, for the present, that, upon a cursory inspection, it appears to be free from grave objections.

RELIEF FOR THE POOR.

The complaints of our people, arising from personal indebtedness, are not ill-founded. They are hampered by debts to an alarming extent. Much of the property, for which their indebtedness was created, has been confiscated or destroyed by order of the National government, which indebtedness, it seems to us, in strict justice, ought to have been provided for by the government, at the same time. They are, therefore, unable to pay, without, in many cases, producing permanent and irrecoverable adversity. Their condition needs the aid of the government in some form.

But, in the absence of all hope of relief from this quarter, we submit that it is a question in which the debtor and creditor are alone concerned, and which ought not to be settled or attempted to be settled, by an appeal to the masses, or by the votes especially of the negro race, who are neither to be profited or injured themselves, but may seriously damage the cause of justice and right.

There are great principles of law, founded upon the infallible word of God and the acknowledged principles of right and justice, lodged in every sound human bosom, which no earthly government should invalidate or destroy. There may be times and exigencies, however, in which the government may properly step in between the debtor and creditor, and compel the exercise of that humanity and forbearance which may be necessary for the protection of the rights of the debtor, but, at the same time, it cannot be justified in any action, which is manifestly unjust to the creditor.

If, therefore, our Conventions and Legislative bodies, in attempting to afford relief, would wisely adhere to those great principles, none would suffer wrongfully. The Convention now in session will propose to Gen. Canby a measure of relief, which, if it were designed to be temporary and would have the effect of inducing all debtors and creditors to make an honorable, humane and just settlement of their matters, would result in good.

But why insert the principle of repudiation in the organic law of the State? Why place the new Constitution in antagonism with the Constitution of the United States?

WHAT IT HAS ALREADY COST.—The so-called Convention has now been in session seventeen days, at a cost of about $1,100 per day—making, in the aggregate, nearly $19,000, to say nothing of the matter of mileage, stationery, &c. Of all the legitimate business which it was assembled to transact, it has only adopted a few sections of one Article of the proposed Constitution; and those few sections contemplate a heavy burden to the State, in the future, in the way of taxation, for the support of useless and superfluous officers. These are the first-fruits of Radical rule! Who can predict the end, if it is fastened upon North Carolina?

THE DAILY CAROLINIAN.—The first number of this paper, edited by Messrs. Hearne and Dunham, made its appearance on yesterday. It presents a neat appearance and its columns are filled with sprightly matter. We wish our cotemporary great success.

NORTH CAROLINA AROUSING!

The proceedings of Conservative meetings in various sections of the State, requested to be published in the Sentinel, accumulate upon our hands to such an extent, that we are unable to publish them in extenso. We propose to make such abstracts, as we can find space for,—hoping that our friends will be therewith content. It must rejoice the heart of every lover of his State and country to witness the awakening of the fires of patriotism among our people, in this hour of exigency and peril. The spectacle is full of hopeful augury. "There is life in the old land yet."

From all the indications, we anticipate a glorious rally of the friends of Constitutional Union and civil liberty, next week.

CRAVEN.

A large and enthusiastic meeting of the Conservatives of this county was held on Tuesday. Hon. M. E. Manly presided, and, on taking the chair, made an eloquent and patriotic speech. The meeting was further ably address by Messrs. Jno. Hughes, H R. Bryan, Jno. H. Haughton, Alex. Justice and S. D. Pool. One hundred delegates were appointed to the Conservative State Convention, and an excellent series of resolutions was adopted. Among the resolutions was the following just tribute to the small band of Conservatives in the Constitutional (so-called) Convention:

Resolved, That a vote of thanks be and is hereby tended to the Conservative members of the Convention now in session at Raleigh, for their noble and patriotic course.

GRANVILLE.

The meeting in this County, on Saturday last, was one of the largest and most respectable ever assembled in Granville. Jas. R. Duty, Esq., presided and W. H. P. Jenkins was Secretary. Messrs. J. T. Littlejohn, Ro. J. Hicks, R. S. Barnett, D. A. Paschall, Geo. Wortham, Willis Lewis, W. M. Blackwell, H. E. Coleman, C. H. K. Taylor, W. B. Crews, J. A. Bullock, W. H. Jenkins and S. A. Williams constituted the Committee on Resolutions, who reported an eloquent series, through the first named gentleman, the Chairman.

The Preamble recites the various concessions and sacrifices which North Carolina has already made, for the sake of peace and restoration, and the return which she has received, therefor, at the hands of the despotic majority in the National Councils; and, in view of the facts, the resolutions declare

1. That the people of Granville claim the protection of the Constitution and protest against all violations thereof.

2. That they hail with delight the awakening of the people of the North to a sense of the dangers which threaten to destroy the Constitution, as evidenced by the recent elections, and pledge a hearty co operation in their efforts to redeem the country.

3. That, while they will assure to the colored race the full protection of the law in their persons and property, yet, "in the language of the late Provisional Governor of the State, 'it is not to be expected that they can comprehend and appreciate, as they should be comprehended and appreciated, the wise provisions and limitations of Constitutions and laws, or that they can have that knowledge of public affairs, which is necessary to qualify them to discharge all the duties of the citizen.'"

[The resolutions are so admirable, throughout, that we hope yet to be able to produce them entire.]

Fifty-two delegates, embracing many of the first citizens of the County, were appointed to the approaching State Convention.

CHATHAM.

At a meeting of the Conservative citizens of this county, held in Pittsboro', on the 25th., J. W. Berryman, Esq., presided and N. A. Ramsey, Esq., was apointed Secretary.

Sixty-four delegates were apppointed to the Conservative Convention. Among them, as in the cases above, are the leading citizens of the county—a number of whom we hope to see in attendance next week.

SURRY.

A large meeting was held at Dobson, on the 27th. Capt. W. M. Norman presided, and Luther G. Waugh was appointed Secretary.

Resolutions of the right stripe were adopted. One of them nominates General Winfield S. Hancock tor the Presidency of the United States.

Twenty five delegates were appointed to the Conservative State Convention. In default of the attendance of any of the gentlemen named, Hon. R. Y. McAden, Seaton Gales and R. C. Badger, Esqs., are requested to represent the Conservatives of Surry.

The following resolutions, adopted on the occasion, cover the true ground and express the sentiments of nine tenths of the native white men of North Carolina:

Resolved, That while it is the sincere desire of the people of North Carolina, that the State should be restored to its proper and Constitutional relations to the Federal Union, at an early day, upon just and honorable terms to all concerned, yet we most solemnly protest against any restoration, which will subordinate the white to the black race;—as we sincerely believe that such a policy will inevitably tend to produce a war of races, which will produce disaster and ruin to both.

Resolved, That we believe that the several acts of Congress touching reconstruction are clearly in violation of the Constitution of the United States, and that, if carried out, they will abolish all distinction between the white and black races,—thereby degrading the former,—and that they are inconsistent with the civilization of the age.

ARREST OF AN ABSCONDING "LOYALIST."—T. H. Haanon, an agent of the Freedmen's Bureau, at Lake Providence, Louisiana, who absconded from that place a few days since with $8,000 belonging to freedmen and others, which came into his hands as Bureau agent, has been arrested at Charleston S. C., and nearly all the money recovered. He has been sent to New Orleans under strong guard to await trial. The money is in the bank, subject to the order of Gen. Howard, and will be returned to the owners.

The "Constitutional Convention," (So-called.)

THURSDAY, Jan. 30, 1868.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Lennon, of the Convention.

A communication was read from Dr. E. C Fisher, Superintendent of the Insane Asylum, inviting the members of the Convention to visit the Institution.

Galloway, (negro) offered a resolution, requesting the Committee on Cities and Towns to enquire by what authority the town of Wilmington claims to be a city.

Mr. Ashley, a resolution in regard to laborers and mechanics. Referred.

By the same: A resolution that debts for labor performed shall have a precedence. Referred.

Mr. Gunter, a resolution that the Convention shall assemble at 10 o'clock, instead of 11, A. M., as heretofore. Lies over.

Mr. Logan, a resolution changing the terms of the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions in Rutherford county. Referred.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, an ordinance levying a tax of 75 per cent. on old debts.

Mr. Teague, a resolution instructing the Committee of three, appointed to confer with Gen. Canby, to ascertain how far he would recognize legislation on the part of this Convention. So referred.

Mr. Abbott, by consent, a report from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, to whom was referred the memorial of one Hall, of Sampson county, contesting the seat of Mr. Williams, of that county, recommending that Mr. Hall be declared elected. Lies over.

Mr. Rodman submitted a report from the Committee on Relief. Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Pool presented a majority report from the Committee on Suffrage.

[Two or three minority reports accompanied the majority report, one of which, by Messrs. Graham and Durham, will be published, to-morrow.]

They were ordered to be printed and made the special order for Thursday next.

Mr. Rich moved that the rules be suspended, and his resolution, offered day before yesterday, calling on Sheriffs to furnish a statement of the number of executions in their counties, and the amount of money to be collected thereon, be taken up.

The rules were accordingly suspended and the resolution adopted.

Hood (negro's) resolution, raising a Committee of five, to report names of persons entitled to be relieved from political disabilities was, on his motion, taken up; and on it he called the previous question, but withdrew it, to allow Mr. Pool to amend it as follows: "Strike out 5 and insert 8," making the Committee consist of one member from each Judicial District.

Hood, (negro,) accepted and renewed the call of the previous question.

Mr. Tourgee wished to amend; and

Mr. Durham wished to amend by making the resolution embrace all persons that labor under political disabilities. [Here calls for the previous question came fast and thick.] Mr. Durham said he knew that the gag law would be enforced in this, as in a great many other instances. He called upon the Reporters to state how all debate upon this subject had been cut off. He wished the people to know how the minority were gagged, and not allowed even the privilege of a free discussion.

Mr. Ellis said that he desired to say, before the vote was taken on the passage of the resolution, that those voting for the resolution were bound to recognize the fact that the 14th article, known as the Howard Amendment, was at this time a part of the Constitution. He denied the fact, as there were bills in both houses of Congress, now, in relation to it, which had not yet been adopted, and it was necessary, on the ratification of said Amendment by the requisite number of States, that the Secretary of State should, by proclamation or otherwise, make the same known to the people; and, as this had not been done, it could not be yet a part of the Constitution for practical purposes. Therefore, he would be compelled to vote against it, although he was in favor of universal amnesty for all persons, whether they belonged to one or the other political parties. He believed, however, that according to the provisions of the Constitution, the President's pardons were good, and he would like to see it tested in the proper courts of the country.

[Here the gag was again enforced by clamors for the previous question, and he was prevented from proceeding further.]

The call for the previous question being thus summarily insisted upon, a viva voce vote was taken upon the resolution, which resulted, yeas 89; nays 16.

The following gentlemen voted in the negative, viz: Messrs. Durham, Ellis, Etheridge, Graham, of Orange, Grant, of Northampton, Hare, Hodnett, Holt, Lennon, McCubbins, Merritt, Nicholson, Parker, Read, Tourgee, and Williams, of Sampson.

Mr. Tourgee gave, as the reason why he voted in the negative, because he knew of a great many men who were not in accord with the Reconstruction Acts, but who were sound and unflinching Union men during the war. They should have never been disfranchised, and the resolution did not do them justice. Besides he was opposed to a gag-law in the shape of the "previous question."

The hour of 12 having arrived, the unfinished business of yesterday, on the Relief measure, was next in order, when

Mr. Heaton said that this matter was of too much importance to be hurried through, and he moved to postpone its consideration until Saturday next, and that it be made the special order, and that the report of the Committee on "Governor and Executive Officers" be next considered. Agreed to.

Mr. Sweet moved that the House resolve itself into Committee of the Whole, for its consideration. Agreed to; whereupon

Mr. Jones, of Washington, was called to the Chair.

Section 3d. of the Report was, on motion of Mr. Abbott, adopted. After some debate, the 4th. section was adopted, with the following modification: "Strike out all after the word "that," in the fourth line, and insert "he will support the Constitution of the United States and of the State of North Carolina, and honestly and faithfully perform the duties of the office to which he has been elected."

Section 5th. was adopted without debate.

Section 6th. was modified as follows, and adopted: "Strike out the words "treason and," in the third line, and insert the word "in"; strike out all after the word "pardon," in the seventh line, down to the word "reprieve," inclusive.

Sections 7, 8 and 9 were adopted without debate.

Mr. Graham, of Orange, moved to strike out the whole of section 10th., giving the Governor power to nominate, and, with the concurrence of the Senate, appoint certain officers.

Mr. Hodnett concurred with Mr. G., and said that the section completely overturned the time-honored and established customs of North Carolina. He was opposed to allowing to so small a body such complete sway. The people would not be represented,—only the Governor and his party. The whole thing would just amount to a party machine, and he would oppose such being incorporated into a Constitution that he had anything to do with.

Mr. Graham's motion to strike out was then put to a vote and lost.

The section, as reported by the Committee, was then adopted.

Sections 11, 12 and 13 were adopted, without objection.

Mr. Graham opposed the change made by section 14 in the Governor's Council. He thought the present system the best. The members of the Council were elected by the Legislature, and in some measure came direct from the people. He did not think that a set of men, who were continually under the same roof and eat at the Governor, should constitute his sole advisers. He moved to strike out the first five lines.

Mr. McDonald, of Chatham, agreed with Mr. G., as he was in favor of having all officers elected by the people.

Mr. Graham's amendment was put to a vote and lost. The section, as it stood, was adopted. Sections 15 and 16 were adopted.

Section 17 was, on motion of Mr. Rodman, stricken out. Section 18 was modified as follows, and then adopted: "Strike out, in the first line, the word 'may,' and insert the word 'shall;' and, in second line, make it read 'A Bureau of Statistics, Agriculture and Immigration.'"

Mr. Nicholson moved to reconsider the vote of yesterday on the 2nd section.—Agreed to.

Mr. N. then offered the following substitute, which was adopted:

"No person shall be eligible as Governor or Lt. Governor, unless he shall have attained 30 years of age, shall have been a citizen of the United States for 5 years, and have been a resident of this State for 2 years next before the day of election, nor shall the person elected to either of these two offices be eligible to the same office more than four years, in any term of six years, unless the office shall have been cast upon him as Lt. Governor or President of the Senate."

Mr. Rodman moved to reconsider the vote upon the first section. Carried.

Mr. R. offered an amendment, but withdrew it, as Mr. Tourgee's amendment of yesterday covered the same ground.

Mr. Tourgee moved to amend his amendment, of yesterday, by striking out the word "ratification," and insert the word "approval," and to strike out the figures "30," and insert "19."

The amendment was agreed to, and the section, as amended, was then adopted.

The Report of the Committee on the Militia was next taken up for consideration, and, after some time spent in amendments and discussions, sections 1 and 2 were adopted, in form following:

SEC. 1. All able bodied male citizens of the State of North Carolina, between the ages of 21 and 40 years, who are citizens of the United States, shall be liable to duty in the militia: Provided, that all persons, who may be adverse to bearing arms, from religious scruples, shall be exempt.

SEC. 2. The General Assembly shall provide for the organizing, arming, equipping and discipline of the militia, and for paying the same, when called into active service.

Pending the consideration of the 3rd section, the Committee, on motion of Galloway, (negro,) rose, the Chairman reported progress and asked leave to sit again.

On motion of Galloway, (negro,) the House adjourned until to-morrow, 11 o'clock.

For the Sentinel.

A miserable set of fellows of the baser sort were sent by our infatuated people to cobble up a Constitution, as it was called, in the year of our Lord 1835. They met in the city of Raleigh—some of them came rather late, having lost their way, as they were too ignorant to read the sign-boards, and too proud to ask. They received one dollar and a half per day for their services (so-called) and were well paid at that.—They succeeded, however, in about six weeks, by the aid of a couple of competent clerks, in patching up a document, contemptible in all its parts—which they called a Constitution, and which has been from that day to this the scoff of the civilized world, and a disgrace to the State. In an old record of the times, may be found the names of this weak and, most incompetent assemblage; otherwise it might be difficult to learn who had got up this "fanfaronade of nonsense." One Nat. Macon, possibly a white man, was President, but was so utterly ignorant of the parliamentary rules, that the whole body, during the session, was in inextricable confusion. Will Gaston was there—probably the same Billy Gaskins who was indicted for stealing a hog, or a mule, and received thirty-nine for the mistake. John Branch was among them—and David L. Swain—whether negroes or not is somewhat uncertain. All that is known of them is found in this record. There was one John Owen, supposed to be the body servant of Gov. Owen, who took his name by way of making himself respectable. John M. Morehead was another. Who was he? Echo answers who? J. J. Daniel figured among them and made some very foolish remarks. Henry Seawell was another, and hailed from the County of Wake. He was a very inferior man, though not a negro. The name of Weldon N. Edwards also appears. There is a rumor that he is still living in Warren; though in great obscurity. All these members ostentatiously proclaimed their own incompetency and folly, by frequently mingling in the debates (so-called,) which were scarcely superior in interest to the wild jabberings of so many monkeys in convention assembled. The rank and file of that memorable body were a stupid set, who did the voting as they were told, and lived on their dollar and a half a day, perfectly satisfied, as they ought to have been. They boarded at cheap houses, and drank but little whiskey, which was then only 40 cents per gallon. Many of them were in homespun, and had not sense enough to be ashamed of it. Here are their names, some of them evidently mis-spelt, as they were too ignorant to write them correctly. None of them would seem, to have made their mark. Probably some better informed friend did the chirography, and the marksmen ratified the acts by bowing their heads. These names, so far as intelligible, are as follows:

David Outlaw, Frederick J. Hill, Burgess S. Gaither, Sam. P. Carson, (Samuel, perhaps) Hugh McQueen, Alexander Troy, Richard Dobbs Spaight, John D. Toomer, Louis D. Wilson, Robert B. Gilliam, Josiah Crudup, Jesse Speight, Kenneth Rayner, Alex. F. Gaston, Bartlett Shipp, Asa Biggs, John B. Kelly, Owen Holmes, William B. Meares, J. S. Smith, J. L. Bailey, C. Fisher, Meshack Franklin, D. M. Barringer, and a good many others, of about the same speed. Some of them had the impudence and effrontery to assume the very names of some of our Governors and Judges—and careless persons might be misled by their miserable device.

Our glorious Convention is composed of gentlemen—every mother's son of them; and they are determined to act, and look, and feel, and be paid, like gentlemen.—Eight dollars per diem! Glory and greenbacks enough for one day!! Selah!

X. P. G.

Mr. Lincoln appointed five of the eight judges now composing the Supreme Court, which the radical Congressmen are afraid to trust.

Mr. William Gilmore Simms, the novelist and verse-writer, is living in South Carolina in very destitute circumstances. He is near 80 years old.

DIED:

EDUCATIONAL.

Kittrell's Springs Female College.

GRANVILLE COUNTY, N. C.

THE NEXT SESSION of this Institution will open the second Wednesday in February, 1868. The location is unsurpassed for health and accessibility.

During the past session, in a family of nearly two hundred, there has scarcely been a case of sickness. The health of many invalid young ladies has been thoroughly restored by the celebrated mineral water found here and they have prosecuted their studies with entire success.

We are immediately on the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, within less than a half mile of Kittrell's Depot, and in telegraphic communication with all parts of the country.

Every facility is afforded for the most thorough and extensive education.

Terms MODERATE AND ACCOMMODATING.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. Millinery is in no demand at Kittrell's. Parents tell us that their daughters cost them less here, in this respect, than even at home. Taking into consideration the items of dress and medical attendance, there is no cheaper school in the South. Besides, we are determined to accommodate our patrons as far as we can as to time of payment, and to put female education within the reach of the people, in the present depressed condition of the country. OUR DAUGHTERS MUST BE EDUCATED.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1868.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The best Blood-Purifier in the World,—Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis: We invite attention to the announcement of this celebrated medicine. Its growing popularity is evidenced by the immensely increased demand for it,—a demand so great that Dr. Lawrence has been compelled to remove from Wilson to Baltimore, at which latter place he can manufacture it on a more extensive scale.

The second term of the current session of the Charlotte Female Institute (Rev. R. Burwell & Son) will commence on the 15th. inst.

Read the new announcement of West. brook & Co., Greensboro. Now is the time for planting. Send for catalogue, or apply to Dr. L. S. Perry, Agent for the Nurseries in this City.

Auction this morning at Messrs. W. H. Jones & Co's—to continue for a few days, at 10, A. M. and 2 and 7 o'clock, P. M.—The stock to be disposed of is large, attractive and varied. For details, see advertisement.

MAYOR'S COURT.—Miranda Pool, colored, charged with stealing clothing and other articles from Anny Perkins, colored, was returned to the County Court.

Willis Hartsfield, colored, charged with breaking open a house and stealing therefrom, in the night time, about 40 blankets and 23 pair of shoes, belonging to the Freedmen's Bureau, in this City, upon his own confession and proof brought against him, was returned to the next Superior Court for trial.

Private Dawson, Co. E., 8th. U. S. Infantry, arrested and lodged in the Guard House by the Chief of Police, for intoxication and exposure of his person on Fayetteville Street, was turned over to the military authority.

Reuben Davison, and Thomas King, (a discharged soldier,) were arrested for intoxication and lodged in the Guard House. After the usual time of confinement, they were discharged.

SARGENT'S BENEFIT.—A brilliant programme is offered for this evening, on occasion of the complimentary benefit of Mr. Sargent.

Last night the performance went off with great eclat. Fun, frolic and humor were in the ascendant.

CIRCUS.—The Agent of Dan Castello's Circus has arrived. Look out for the big posters.

COTTON.—The indications for a few days past, of improvement in the price of cotton, have had a decidedly good effect upon most persons, whether nearly or remotely connected with that article. It has been sold readily, here, for several days, at 12½ cts. nett, and we hope to see it go beyond that price. On yesterday, there were some sales as high as 12¾ and 13 for good Middling.

THE EVENING STARS.—The two beautiful evening stars, Venus and Jupiter, are rapidly approaching each other. To mortal eye, they appeared, last night, less than the diameter of the moon apart, though the distance between them is millions of miles. Venus is the lower, and, of course, the brightest. The sight was a very interesting and beautiful one. Look out for the twin glories this evening.

OUR COTEMPORARY,—the Charlotte Bulletin, asks, "where is the Raleigh Sentinel?" In reply, we will state that we are alive and kicking. The Sentinel has been sent regularly to our friend, except that, perhaps, on one or two days, we were obliged to omit a few of our exchanges, when we ran short. Our friend must charge this to the great demand for the Sentinel.

SOME OF THE PAPERS state that Hon. James Brooks, of New York, and Hon. John Quincy Adams, of Boston, are expected to attend the State Conservative Convention, which meets in this city, next Wednesday. It would highly gratify the Convention to have the presence of those gentlemen, or any other distinguished Conservative gentlemen from abroad, but, so far as we are informed, there is no foundation for the above statement.

We anticipate a very general rally of the "far heels,"—of gentleman of distinction of the Old North State,—but we are not advised of the coming of any gentlemen from abroad.

CORRESPONDENTS must bear with us—We have a number of excellent favors on hand, which will appear in all good time.

THE CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.—There are gratifying probabilities that the Conservative Convention, next week, will be largely attended. In view of the fact that the various Hotels and Boarding-Houses in the City are already pretty well filled, by the number of strangers in the City, in attendance on the Supreme Court, &c., some arrangements should be made for the entertainment of those who may attend the Convention. Let every latch string hang out, and let our Conservative citizens maintain the character of our city for hospitality.—Notwithstanding the "hard times," almost every family can accommodate two or three guests. Our friends are coming to consult for the good of North Carolina, and let them receive a hearty welcome.

THE WILMINGTON Journal acknowledges the receipt of a bottle of wine, manufactured by the Wilmington Wine Company, from the juice of the Scuppernong. The Journal pronounces it good, but we do not know that the Journal is a judge. As Mr. Froelich is coming to the Conservative Convention, or ought to come, he may send us a bottle or two, for sickness, &c. People who seldom drink wine are better judges than those who love it. "Love," it is said, "hides a multitude of sins."

STATE ITEMS.

—There has been another disastrous fire in Fayetteville,—the third within a fort night. There are evidently villains prowling about that goodly town, who seem bent on its destruction. The last fire was on Saturday night last, when the dry goods store of Mr. R. W. Thornton, situated upon Hay street, was discovered on fire, the flames having so far progressed on the inside as to prevent ingress through the front door. Recourse was had to the back entrance, which was found to have been broken open, doubtless by the incendiaries who fired the building. The flames spread so rapidly that it was found impossible to save anything of value, and the building, with its entire contents, was totally consumed.—Mr. Thornton had no insurance whatever on his property.

The same night a fire broke out in Mr. W. A. Whitehead's store. This was thought to have been accidental, and was quickly subdued by the employees, who had not yet closed the store.

—The Wilmington Star denies the rumor that the Wilmington & Manchester Railroad is in the hands of a "receiver for the benefit of its creditors." It says that Mr. H. M. Drane was appointed receiver under a decree of court, giving judgment in favor of only one creditor, whose claim amounted to about ten thousand dollars.—Mr. Drane has nothing whatever to do with the operations of the road, and, when the earnings cancel the debt for which he was appointed receiver, the office expires.

—The Roanoke News mentions the gratifying fact that many of the delegates to the Conservative Convention, on Wednesday next, from Halifax, will attend. It expresses the hope that many members of the Press will be present, as a consultation of the Editors of the State might prove advantageous to the cause. The suggestion is a good one. We shall be delighted to shake the hands of our cotemporaries and to confer with them as to the common duties before us.

ALABAMA TO BE IN THE UNION SOON.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Times writes:

"Vigorous efforts are making here to secure the ratification of the constitution and the success of the party in the Alabama election which occurs on the 4th proximo. A large sum of money and thousands of documents have been forwarded to that State, and the determination of Congress is to have it admitted into the Union before the close of February. Should it happen that a majority of the registered voters do not vote, but a majority of those who do be cast for the constitution, a bill will be promptly passed by Congress declaring the constitution ratified, and the State entitled to representation on the ground that a majority of votes cast should determine the matter, and that the apathy or hostility of the enemies of reconstruction should no longer be allowed to postpone it. There is great anxiety in Congress to get one State in the Union—more than there will be to get the balance in—as it is looked upon as the one certain way of settling all doubts as to the success of reconstruction under the plan of Congress, and as dispatting all prospect of an unfavorable decision from the Supreme Court."

A CLINCHER.

The partisans of Gen. Grant have resorted to every manner of expedient in order to relieve him from the crushing effects of the exposure of his conduct towards the President of the United States, and his participation in the trick of reinstating Stanton in the War Department. All these efforts have only served to complicate the General more seriously, and to put him in a position which no soldier should desire to occupy.

No value whatever is attached to the voluntary contradictions that have been put forth under the unscrupulous dictation of Gen. Grant's keepers here. They are quite ready to deny or fabricate, as occasion may require. Gen. Grant himself only returned from Richmond on Friday night, and, therefore, is not to be held responsible for statements which he will not venture to affirm in any authoritative manner in his own person, or by his own direction.

The facts stated in these columns are susceptible of the most positive proof, and will be sustained whenever they may be called in question by the person whom they directly concern. Therefore, it is an easy matter to make the issue, if it be desired. In the meantime, the public will know what estimate to put upon the interested statements of newspapers and correspondents, that are prompted for a particular purpose.

But as we have had occasion heretofore to suggest, if none of these damaging facts existed at all, General Grant would still stand before the country in a most discreditable attitude. From whom did he receive the appointment of Secretary of War ad interim; and who had the power to confer it? There is but one answer possible, because the appointment could only come from the Executive. General Grant had no official connection whatever with the Senate. His relation was exclusively with the President; and when he clandestinely abandoned the office which the President had voluntarily confided to his honor, in order to identify himself with a partisan conspiracy, he betrayed his trust into the hands of those who contrived that base proceeding. There is no escape from this conclusion, whatever may be thought of his conduct in volunteering to give the President notice, and then failing to redeem his promise.—Nat. Intelligencer.

HOW IT WORKS.

In November, 1865, Major General H. W. Slocum, the brave commander of the 12th army corps, ran against Gen. Barlow, another brave officer, for Secretary of State for the then Republican State of New York, and was beaten 27,857 votes. Gen. Slocum was subsequently named by President Johnson for the post of Naval Officer of the port of New York, and rejected by the Radical Senate for his Conservatism. The verdict of the Conservatives of this State last November was a change of 75,000 votes in favor of Slocum.

In 1866, General Curtis, of St. Lawrence county, New York, the fighting hero of Fort Fisher, where he lost an eye, was nominated by the President Collector of the Port of Ogdensburg. The Senate rejected him for Conservatism, although the Radicals claim to be par excellence the friends of the soldier.

In 1866 the Republicans carried St. Lawrence county by 7,500 majority. Last November the Radicals obtained only about 6,000 majority, being a change of 1,500 in favor of General Curtis. Query: At this rate of progress, how many more brave soldiers can the Senate afford to reject?

WHEN it is considered that the whole process of Radical "Reconstruction" has been conducted on the plan of "cutting off the dog's tail an inch at a time," it is positively painful to learn that in a single section of the South at least, to wit: in Florida, the whole matter must be re begun de novo.—Startling as it may seem, it appears that slavery still exists in that unhappy and unreconstructed State—not the slavery introduced by the contract system of the Freedmen's Bureau, but the old original slavery which implied actual ownership of the colored chattel. The Seminoles were slave-owners, and large proprietors of negroes by purchase and of runaway blacks bagged by the aboriginals and compelled to work for their new masters. When the late William L., profanely termed by those who have no respect for the divinity that doth hedge a king, Old Billy Bowlegs, reluctantly removed with the larger portion of his Seminole subjects to the west of the Mississippi, a few remained, and to them were transferred the colored chattels belonging to their tribe. The descendants of these Seminoles still hold slaves, refuse to release them, and defy the Reconstruction acts; and as the suffrage schemes of the Congressional Radicals, all-prehensile as they are, expressly exclude "Indians not taxed," the braves of the late Bowlegs must be included in the next reconstructed Reconstruction acts, or Mrs. Stowe may yet find topics for another sensation novel in the Everglades of Florida.—N. Y. World.

"THE LAND WE LOVE," for November, published at Charlotte, N. C., by Hill, Irwin & Co., and edited by that gallant Confederate soldier, Gen. D. H. Hill, whose valiant deeds, as a brave and meritorious officer, are familiar to every soldier of the Confederate army, has been received. The magazine contains ninty-six pages of choice reading matter, and numerous rich engravings. The Land We Love is something the people of the South have long needed, and it should be gratifying to them that the flash literary stuff of New England has been superseded by a sterling publication in their midst, and by a gentleman whose devotion to the cause in which he battled has endeared him to the people of the loveliest and richest section of our country.—Montana Democrat.

A GOOD MEMORY.—While at a friend's house the other day, an old negro man came to the door on some errand, and making known his wants, he spied a picture of Confederate Generals, that hung on the wall. He called our attention to one, by asking: "Massa, ain't that Gen'l. Leonidas Polk?" We pointed to several, asking which he meant, and he finally guided our finger to the very one in question. We told him he was right, that the picture was General Polk. He replied—"I thought so; de last time I seed him, was in 1838, in Franklin county, North Carolina. He cum to Mister John D. Hawkins', who was a friend and neighbor to my ole Massa, and libed about 12 miles from Louisburg. We was all Episcopalions and went to hear General Polk preach. Dis is de first time I'se seed him sense, but I'd knode him any where."

This old negro was at least 70 years old and said he was once the slave of Samuel Johnston, of Franklin county, N. C.—Danville Times.

HON. REVERDY JOHNSON'S LAST SPEECH.—A correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says that the speech of Hon. Reverdy Johnson, in the Senate on Monday last, in reply to Senators Trumbull and Morton, was reluctantly admitted by many of the Radicals present to be a complete refutation of the arguments so triumphantly advanced by the two latter in favor of the constitutional authority of Congress to carry out its present reconstruction policy. Never before has Mr. Johnson, who generally commands the undivided attention of the Senate, been listened to with more attention, and it was conceded on all hands that he outdid himself in the massive and thorough production which he delivered on Monday.

Special dispatch to the Baltimore Sun.

PROTESTS AGAINST THE BILL PROHIBITING DECISION BY THE SUPREME COURT ON THE RECONSTRUCTION LAW.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.

There have been received here by Republican members of Congress such vigorous protests of Republican constituents against the last reconstruction bill adopted by the Reconstruction Committee, forbidding adjudication by the Supreme Court in cases arising under the reconstruction acts, that it is not believed the committee will urge the bill on the House, and from authentic sources it is learned that the proposed measure will be reconsidered by the committee and ignored. Democratic members say they prefer to have the bill tested by a vote in the House, and let the result go to the people in the coming contest for President.

DOWN WITH DICTIONARIES!—The convention which is trying to reconstruct North Carolina is also taking a hand at the reconstruction of that worn-out and effete institution, the English language. Dictionaries are not to be allowed, any more than constitutions, to stand in the way of the American Juggernaut. The fanatics who worship that idol will drag it over Webster's Unabridged as readily as over any other embodiment of common usage and common sense. Perish the miserable tongue which has hitherto been the tool of tyranny and superstition, and all hail the new-fangled dialect in which the priests and prophets of the dawning millennium are henceforth to preach the evangel of Progress to all mankind!

The word "negro" thus the North Carolina Convention hath decreed—must no longer be used in speaking of those persons whom the custom of ages has thus denominated, and who constitute the majority of that assembly. By a resolution adopted on the 16th instant, the Convention declared that no newspaper reporter who used that word in his journal should be allowed upon the floor or in the galleries of the hall occupied by that august body. The Convention does not say what shall be considered an acceptable synonym of the forbidden word—whether "gentlemen of color," "American citizens of African descent," "ex-contraband," or what—so that the unfortunate reporters are still left in ignorance how to avoid treading on the sensitive toes of the colored members. But "negro" must not be used—that much is settled—and so deep is the determination of the Convention on this point, that we may look for a clause incorporating it in the fundamental law of the State.

We will only say, that the laws of the North Carolina Convention, fortunately, do not reach beyond the limits of that State, and that we of the North are not yet impelled to the necessity of hunting up delicate euphemisms to suit the fastidious tastes of the members of that body.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

LARGE CONSIGNMENT.—By reference to our receipts of produce it will be discovered that Messrs. J. B. Hunter & Co., merchants, of this City, received a larger consignment of cotton per Seaboard Road, on yesterday, than has been received by any other merchant of this city since cotton has been coming in this season. They received forty bales of cotton, fourteen boxes of tobacco, and several other small articles, such as peas, beans, &c.—Norfolk Day Book.

It is said that Augusta J. Evans is to write a new novel in which the lovers amuse themselves in their lighter moments with the problems of integral and differential calculus. In their serious moods they talk to each other of the origin of the Chaldaic and Sanscrit tongues.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31, P. M.

HOUSE.—The Secretary of Treasury was called on for information relative to the income tax.

Mr. Schofield, rising to a question of privilege, offered a resolution, reciting that yesterday evening's Express contained a statement, that one of the Supreme Court Judges had declared, in public, that a majority of the Supreme Bench have declared the Reconstruction acts unconstitutional, and that the Court would so decide, and directing the Judiciary Committee to enquire whether the article was true, and whether the facts constitute such a misdemeanor as justifies the House in presenting or articles of impeachment. Adopted,—yeas 97, nays 57.

The resolution refers to Judge Field.

The bill forfeiting railroad lands was resumed, and a vote is to be taken at 4 o'clock to-morrow.

SENATE.—The Supplemental Tenure of Office bill was resumed.

An amendment, to exclude agents in the State Department, who were paid from secret service fund, was discussed. The bill meets strong opposition.

THE
ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
OF HARTFORD.

ASSETS OVER $7,000,000.

PAID POLICIES BY DEATH, IN NORTH CAROLINA: $33,000.

Judge E. A. BULKELEY, President. | T. O. ENDERS, Secretary.

W. H. CROW,
MANAGER AND GENERAL AGENT FOR THE STATE OF
NORTH CAROLINA AND PART OF VIRGINIA.

IN COMPARING THIS COMPANY WITH FORTY-TWO COMPANIES, AND BY THE REPORT of the Insurance Commissioners of Massachusetts, the following facts appear, under OFFICIAL ENDORSEMENT:

1st. The Ætna issued more policies than either of forty other Companies. More than four times the average, AND NEARLY ONE-TENTH OF ALL.

2nd. That excluding Capital, the Ætna's ratio of Assets to Liabilities is larger than that of twenty-nine Companies, AND MORE THAN THE AVERAGE OF ALL.

3rd. That the Ætna's receipts are larger than those of either of thirty-eight other Companies, and more than three times the average, and more than ONE-THIRTEENTH OF all.

4th. That the Ætna's ratio of expenses to receipts is less than that of twenty-nine other Companies, and LESS than the average of all.

5th. That the Ætna's ratio of increase in premium receipts to its cost, is greater than that of any other Company, and four times the average. [See table "G," in Insurance Report.]

6th. That the Ætna's ratio of losses is fifteen per cent less than the average.

7th. That the Ætna's ratio per cent. of increase in Assets is greater than that of any other Company, and more than four times the average.

It will be observed from these comparisons that many Companies do not make so good a showing as the Ætna, although they are unquestionably reliable.

The "ÆTNA" is an old and well-tried institution, and the above extract from the highest official authority upon the subject of Life Insurance commends the Company at once to the thoughtful and serious enquirer, who wishes to make a CERTAIN provision for those depending upon him.

The Ætna loans her customers one-half the premium as long as life lasts, at six per cent., if desired, and gives no restrictions in location or travel in the United States, at any season of the year, and pays her members the

of any Company doing business in this State, and is PERMANENTLY LOCATED HERE; has paid more Revenue into the STATE TREASURY than any other Company, and paid more money to Widows and Orphans than any other, and therefore, with all of these facts, well deserves the largest patronage, and IS RECEIVING IT.

The ÆTNA, being a STOCK COMPANY, gives all the benefit of dividends to her insured and none of the liabilities usual in "Mutual Insurance."

Six per cent interest is allowed upon the Capital Stock of $150,000, and the balance of the profit goes to the insured, which profit or dividend is larger than any other Company doing business in the State.

The ÆTNA has over

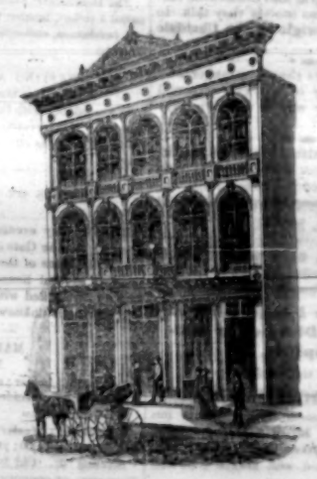
ABOVE LIABILITIES.

THE ÆTNA IS A STRANGER TO LITIGATION. A VERY IMPORTANT FACT.



AND HAS NEVER REFUSED TO RENEW A POLICY LAPSED DURING THE WAR.

Any other facts will be cheerfully imparted in the office, over the Store of Messrs. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

SENTINEL.

Published in the City of Raleigh, N. C.,

Daily, Semi Weekly and Weekly.

William E. Pell, } Editors.
Seaton Gales, }

In view of the scarcity of money, and the severity of the times, the Proprietor of the SENTINEL has determined to reduce the terms of the paper, to commence after the 31st. DECEMBER, next, and to make such improvements in its general character as will commend it to the patronage of an enlightened public.

In POLITICS it will be thoroughly Conservative, advocating, at all times:

A strict observance of the Constitution of the United States, and the harmonious Union of equal States;
Obedience to law and the enforcement of order;
The supremacy of the civil over the military, in time of peace;
The equality of the three co-ordinate branches of the government;
The sovereignty of the States over their own internal affairs, in strict conformity to the Constitution;
The maintenance of freedom and justice to all, without distinction of color, but the supremacy of the white race as the governing class;
Opposition to Radicalism in all its phases.

As a NEWS journal, it shall be equal to any.
The principal markets will be regularly published.
Its LITERARY character shall be maintained and improved, by contributions from our best writers.
Finally, the SENTINEL will seek to be the special promoter of the educational, moral and economical interests of the people of North Carolina.

Important Order from Gen. Canby.

HEADQ'RS 2D MILITARY DISTRICT,
CHARLESTON, S. C., Dec. 31, 1867.

General Orders No. 164.

I. Paragraph II of General Orders No. 10, from the Headquarters of the Second Military District, dated April 11, 1867, is modified as follows:

SUITS FOR DEBTS.

Judgments or decrees for the payment of money on causes of action arising in North Carolina between the 20th of May, 1861, and the 20th day of April, 1865, and in South Carolina between the 19th day of December, 1860, and the 29th day of April, 1865, shall not be enforced, by execution, against the person or property of the defendant. Proceedings for such causes of action now pending, shall be stayed, and no suit or process shall be instituted or commenced on such causes of action until after the civil government of the respective States shall be established in accordance with the laws of the United States.

Paragraph III of the same order is modified as follows:

EXECUTIONS.

Sheriffs, coroners and constables are hereby directed to suspend the sale of all property upon execution, or process under any judgment or decree of a court of the so-called Confederate States, or of the State of North Carolina, rendered between the 20th. day of May, 1861, and the organization of the provisional government of said State, under the President's proclamation of the 29th. day of April, 1865, or of the State of South Carolina, rendered between the 19th. day of December, 1860, and the organization of the provisional government of the said State, under the President's proclamation of the 30th. day of June, 1865, unless the written consent of the defendant be entered of record, and except in cases where the plaintiff or his attorney, upon oath, supported by corroborative testimony, shall allege that the defendant is disposing of, removing, or about to remove, his property beyond the jurisdiction of the court, with intent to defraud his creditors; provided, that no such judgment, so rendered, within the periods aforesaid, shall be a bar to the commencement, in a State court, of a new suit upon the same cause of action in any case in which, by law, the defendant may remove or appeal the same to a court of the United States.

FORECLOSURE OF MORTGAGE.

The sale of real or personal property by foreclosure of mortgage, is likewise suspended in the cases embraced in paragraphs II and III, of said order No. 10 as above amended, except in cases where interest money accruing subsequent to the 29th. of April, 1865, shall not have been paid before the day of sale, and all previous restrictions on such sales are revoked.

Paragraph IV of the same order is modified by substituting the 29th. day of April, 1865, for the 18th. day of May, 1865.

SUITS ON NEGRO DEBTS.

All proceedings for the recovery of money on contracts, whether under seal or by parol, the consideration of which was the purchase of slaves, made subsequent to the 1st. day of January, 1865, are suspended. Judgments or decrees entered for such causes of action shall not be enforced.

HOMESTEADS.

In all sales of property under execution or by order of any Court, there shall be reserved out of the property of any defendant who has a family dependent upon his or her labor, a dwelling house and appurtenances, and (if in the country) twenty acres of land, or so much thereof that the whole shall not exceed in value the sum of two thousand dollars, and in a town or city, the immediate lot upon which such dwelling house is situated, and necessary articles of furniture, apparel, subsistence and implements of husbandry, trade, or other employment, to the value of five hundred dollars. The homestead exemption shall inure only to the benefit of families. In other cases the exemption shall extend only to clothing and implements of trade or employment usually followed by the defendant, of the value of two hundred dollars. The exemptions hereby made shall not be waived or defeated by the act of any defendant who has a family dependent upon him or her for support, and the exempted property shall be ascertained and defined by the Sheriff or other officer enforcing the execution, who shall call to his aid two impartial citizens to make the necessary appraisement, and shall make report thereof to the Court.

ARREST FOR FRAUDULENT DEBTS.

Paragraph X is hereby modified so as to authorize arrest in civil actions ex contractu only in cases where the demand is past due, and the defendant has been guilty of a fraud in contracting the debt sued for, or has removed or disposed of his property, or is about to do so, with intent to defraud his creditors, or is about to leave the State with such intent.

EXECUTORS AND TRUSTEES.

Paragraph XVI, is amended by adding thereto: All proceedings in any court of North Carolina, or South Carolina, recognizing or sanctioning the investment of the funds of minor heirs, or of females, or of insane persons, in the securities of the late rebel government, or the securities of the States of North Carolina or South Carolina, created for the purpose of carrying on war against the Government of the United States, will be suspended until the question of the validity of such investments shall have been determined by the courts of the United States, or by national legislation. And nothing in the provisions of this order, or of the order No. 10 above cited, shall be held to bar or hinder the recovery, by suit, of the estate of any minor heir, female or insane person, (cestui que trust), whether in the hands of executors, administrators, trustees, guardians, masters or clerks of equity courts, and other fiduciary agents, or invested by them in their fiduciary character.

DISTILLERIES.

II. General Order 25, of May 20, 1867, is revoked; and on and after the first day of January, 1868, the distillation of spirituous liquors in this Military District will be subject to such restrictions only as are imposed by the laws of the United States and of the States of North and South Carolina, respectively.

BAR ROOMS.

III. Paragraphs VI and VII of General Orders No. 32, dated May 30, 1867, are revoked, and the power to grant licenses for the sale of spirituous or intoxicating liquors is remitted to the proper local authories, to take effect on and after the 1st. day of January, 1868, and to be subject to the following conditions:

1. The municipal authorities granting the license shall be answerable that the parties to whom such licenses are granted, together with their sureties, shall be responsible persons and of good moral standing in the community, and that both principal and sureties shall be able to qualify individually in double the amount of the bond required, and that the bond shall be a lien upon the personal property of both principal and sureties, and upon proof of default shall warrant the summary seizure and sale of so much of the property of either or both as may be necessary to satisfy the forfeiture or fine and costs.

2. Drunkenness or disorderly conduct on the premises shall work the forfeiture of the license and of the penalty of the bond.

3. The owner or keeper of any bar-room, saloon or other place at which intoxicating liquors are sold, and all other persons interested or connected therewith, shall be regarded as principals in any action of damages growing out of any assault, riot, affray or other disorder occurring on the premises, or directly traceable thereto.

4. All bar-rooms, saloons or other places at which intoxicating liquors are sold, shall be closed on the day or days of any general or local election, and for the twelve hours next preceding the opening and next succeeding the closing of the polls at such election; and the sheriffs of counties and districts and the chief of police of cities and towns shall have power to direct the closing of bar-rooms and other places for the sale of intoxicating liquors, whenever it may be necessary in their judgment to preserve order and quiet.

5. The proceeds of all licenses, forfeitures and fines, under the local regulations or under the provisions of military orders, will be devoted to the support of the poor, and as soon as realized will be turned over to the Commissioners or Overseers of the poor of the District County, City or Town in which they are accrued, and the Commissioners or Overseers will at the end of each month report to the Provost Marshal-General of the District the amount received by them during the month, specifying the name of the parties from whom it was received.

6. The penalties imposed by this order or by the local police regulations, may be enforced in any civil or military Court, and upon conviction the Court may award to the informer a sum not exceeding fifty per cent. of the forfeiture or fine. And it is made the duty of all Sheriffs, Constables, and Coroners of Counties and Districts, and the police of cities and towns, to be vigilant in the enforcement of the police regulations and the provisions of this order in relation to the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The provisions of this paragraph will be held to apply to such licenses granted under General Orders No. 32, to inn-keepers, as remain unexpired after the first of January, 1868.

DISTRICT COURTS.

IV. To promote the speedy trial of prisoners confined for minor offences, and diminish the cost of their maintenance, all committing magistrates will, on the 15th. and last days of each month, report to the judge of their county or District Court all commitments made by them during the preceding half month, specifying the date of commitments, the names of the prisoners, and the offences for which they were committed, to the end that the judges may, whenever in their opinion the number of prisoners or other considerations of public interest call for it, hold special [illegible] of their courts, for the purpose of disposing of such cases. The additional expense of holding such special terms will be a charge upon the state Treasury, and the accounts therefor will be audited and paid as accounts of a similar character are now audited and paid, and if the salaries now paid the judges should be inadequate in view of the additional labor performed by them, a reasonable addition, upon proper representations through the Governor of the State, will be allowed.

PILOTAGE.

V. The pilotage regulations now existing in the States of North and South Carolina are so far modified that, on and after the first day of March, 1868, all passenger steam vessels, regulated by the laws of the United States, and carrying a pilot commissioned by United States Commissioners, shall be exempt from the compulsory payment of pilotage.

NORTH CAROLINA POLL TAX.

VI. So much of the act of the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, entitled "An act to raise monies," ratified on the 26th. day of February, 1867, as makes it "the duty of all persons and corporations to list and pay the [poll] tax of such persons liable to the same, as are in their employment, on the 1st. day of April of each year, as laborers," is rescinded, and hereafter all individual taxes will be assessed directly upon and collected directly from the individuals from whom they are due; provided, that the provisions of this order shall not apply to the taxes levied for the current year, except that double poll tax shall not be enforced if the original tax be paid on or before the 1st. day of March, 1868.
